

REINVENTING THE URBAN: WORKSHOP ON HABITECTURE FOR WILDLIFE

- February 5-8th, 2016, University of Toronto
- Friday, February 5th 5-7pm: Opening Keynote and Reception - Faculty Club, University of Toronto, 41 Willcocks Street.
- Saturday, February 6th and Sunday, February 7th 9:30-5pm: Workshop sessions - Multi-Faith Centre, Koffler House, 569 Spadina Crescent
- Sunday, February 7th 5-7pm: Closing Keynote - Multi-Faith Centre, Koffler House, 569 Spadina Crescent
- Monday, February 8th 9:30-noon: Field Trip to Leslie Street Spit

For further information or to attend workshop please RSVP by February 1st: habitecture2016@gmail.com

This workshop brings together leading advisors from Ontario, the United States, and the United Kingdom, wildlife experts and scholars in urban geography, environmental education, and urban design to explore how cities might better accommodate the wildlife in our midst

Keynotes by Joyce Hwang,

School of Architecture, Suny Buffalo and Ned Dodington, PDR Design, Houston, Texas

Participating Organizations: AAA Gates Wildlife Control, The Humane Society of the United States, Toronto and Region Conservation Authority, Toronto Wildlife Centre

Workshop Funded by SSHRC Connections Grant 611-2015-0262