

GGR382H Field Course

NEW YORK CITY

Friday, 30 August to
Wednesday, 4 September 2019

The course will explore present-day New York to investigate the historical geographies of key urban issues such as planning, redevelopment, public space, gentrification, social exclusion, and housing.

- Instructor Professors Paul Hess and Robert Lewis
- Cost Approximately $600, excluding transportation to and from New York City, meals and tuition.
- Sign Up Ballots available from Room 5047, Sidney Smith Hall, or from www.geog.utoronto.ca/programs/geog-under/current.
